

The Security Institute

Professional Development

We believe in raising standards and encourage everyone working in the security profession to build on their knowledge, competence and expertise.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is an essential way to keep up-to-date with the latest issues and developments in security, giving those who participate in the scheme a competitive edge over other security professionals. Our CPD scheme helps you prove a level of learning development over a year and we believe is key to managing your career.

CPD will help you:

- Keep pace with changes in security
- Achieve recognition
- Improve your confidence
- Identify your competencies
- Become more employable
- Motivate yourself
- Achieve your goals
- Progress in your career

Our CPD Scheme is:

- Free of Charge
- Voluntary for all Institute Fellows, Members & Associates
- Compulsory for Chartered Security Professionals (CSyP)
- Compulsory for all new Student and Graduate members
- Available to everyone—no membership required
- Supported by many—look out for our logo

The Security Institute

Mentoring Scheme

We care passionately about raising standards, and one of the most effective ways we can do this on an individual level is through our Mentoring Scheme.

We will match you with one of our knowledgeable security professionals who has relevant experience, in order to provide free personal one-to-one advice by phone, email or through face-to-face meetings.

Benefits of Mentoring
